

24/7 Crisis Help

If you or someone you love is in crisis, help is free, confidential, and available right now — any hour, any day. You don't have to be suicidal to reach out. Below are the trusted national lifelines. You are not alone.

⚠ BEFORE YOU START

If someone is in immediate physical danger, call 911. For emotional crises, the lines below are free, confidential, and open 24/7. You can call, text, or chat — whatever feels easier.

1 Talk to Someone Now

Trained counselors are ready 24/7 for any kind of emotional crisis — not only suicide.

☐ 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline

Call or text 988, or chat online, any time. Free, confidential support for any mental health, suicide, or substance-use crisis.

→ 988lifeline.org call or text 988

☐ Crisis Text Line

Text HOME to 741741 to reach a trained crisis counselor by text, 24/7.

→ www.crisistextline.org text HOME to 741741

2 Specialized Crisis Lines

Dedicated support for veterans, young people, and survivors.

☐ Veterans Crisis Line

Dial 988 then press 1, text 838255, or chat online. Many responders are veterans themselves.

→ www.veteranscrisisline.net 988 then press 1

☐ The Trevor Project (LGBTQ+ Youth)

24/7 crisis support for LGBTQ+ young people. Call, text, or chat.

→ www.thetrevorproject.org/get-help 1-866-488-7386

☐ National DV Hotline

24/7 confidential support for anyone affected by domestic violence.

→ www.thehotline.org 1-800-799-7233

3 Substance Use & Disaster Distress

Free, confidential help for addiction crises and disaster-related distress.

☐ SAMHSA National Helpline

Free, confidential, 24/7 treatment referral and information for mental health and substance use.

→ www.samhsa.gov/find-help/national-helpline 1-800-662-HELP (4357)

☐ Disaster Distress Helpline

24/7 crisis counseling for emotional distress after a natural or human-caused disaster.

→ www.samhsa.gov/find-help/disaster-distress-helpline 1-800-985-5990

⚠ WATCH OUT FOR

Beware of websites or apps that charge a fee for “crisis counseling” — the national lifelines above are always free. If you’re ever unsure who to call, start with 988.

★ A TIP THAT HELPS

Save 988 in your phone now, before you need it — and share it with someone you care about. Reaching out early, even for “small” struggles, is a sign of strength, not weakness.

NEED HELP WHERE YOU LIVE?

Need ongoing local support?

These lifelines are for right now. For ongoing counseling, support groups, and mental health care near you, use the personalized AI search or ask in the Questions area, and we’ll help you find local help and walk through next steps.

MY NOTES — WHO I CALLED, WHEN, AND WHAT THEY SAID
