

Domestic Violence & Safety Help

If you or your children don't feel safe at home, help is free, confidential, and available 24/7. You deserve support and you are not alone. Below are trusted national resources.

⚠ BEFORE YOU START

If you are in immediate danger, call 911. The hotlines below are free, confidential, and open 24/7 — they can help you make a safety plan, find shelter, and understand your options, with no pressure.

1 Talk to Someone Now (24/7)

Free, confidential support any hour of the day.

☐ National Domestic Violence Hotline

Call, text, or chat 24/7 for support, safety planning, and local referrals.

→ www.thehotline.org Call 1-800-799-7233 / Text START to 88788

☐ StrongHearts Native Helpline

Confidential support for Native Americans affected by domestic and dating violence.

→ strongheartshelpline.org 1-844-762-8483

2 For Specific Situations

Specialized confidential help.

☐ National Sexual Assault Hotline (RAINN)

Free, confidential 24/7 support for survivors of sexual assault.

→ www.rainn.org 1-800-656-4673

☐ Childhelp — Child Abuse Hotline

24/7 help if a child is being abused or you fear for a child's safety.

→ www.childhelpline.org 1-800-422-4453

3 Find Shelter & Local Help

Safe places and local advocates near you.

☐ Find a Local Shelter & Advocate

The hotline can connect you to emergency shelter and a local advocate. You can also search confidentially.

→ www.domesticshelters.org

☐ 211 — Local Safety Help

Call or search for shelters, counseling, and emergency help nearby.

→ www.211.org or dial 211

4 Legal Protection

Free legal help to keep you and your children safe.

☐ Free Legal Help — Protective Orders

Legal aid can help with protective orders, custody, and divorce — regardless of immigration status.

→ www.womenslaw.org

⚠ WATCH OUT FOR

If you think someone may be monitoring your devices, use a safer phone or computer (like a library's) to reach out, and consider clearing your browsing history. The hotline can guide you on staying safe online.

★ A TIP THAT HELPS

You don't have to have decided anything to call — advocates can simply listen, help you think through a safety plan, and tell you what options exist, completely confidentially and free.

NEED HELP WHERE YOU LIVE?

Need help where you live?

This guide covers national hotlines. For shelters, counseling, and legal help specific to your area, use the personalized AI search or ask in the Questions area — and reach out from a safe device.

MY NOTES — WHO I CALLED, WHEN, AND WHAT THEY SAID
