Free & Low-Cost Help for Seniors

Stretching a fixed income? Seniors qualify for discounts and free programs on phones, transport, fitness, taxes, and more. Below are the main national starting points. Tick the box once you've checked each one.

⚠ BEFORE YOU START

Lots of everyday savings go unclaimed simply because people don't ask. The programs below are free or low-cost — and many you qualify for just by being 60 or 65+.

1 Phone, Internet & Utilities

Lower your monthly bills.

☐ Lifeline — Phone/Internet Discount

Monthly discount on phone or internet. See the Phone & Internet guide.

→ www.lifelinesupport.org

☐ LIHEAP — Energy Help

Help paying heating and cooling bills.

→ www.acf.hhs.gov/ocs/programs/liheap 1-866-674-6327

2 Food & Health Savings

Free food programs and ways to cut health costs.

☐ Senior Food & Farmers Market Coupons

Free groceries and produce coupons for older adults. See the Healthy Food guide.

→ www.fns.usda.gov/sfmnp

☐ Prescription Savings

Cut drug costs with Extra Help and discount tools. See the Prescription guide.

→ www.ssa.gov/medicare/part-d-extra-help

3 Get Around & Stay Active

Affordable transport and free fitness.

☐ Senior Transportation

Free or low-cost rides to appointments and errands via the Eldercare Locator.

→ eldercare.acl.gov 1-800-677-1110

☐ Free Senior Fitness (SilverSneakers)

Many Medicare plans include free gym membership. Ask your plan.

→ www.silversneakers.com

4 Free Taxes, Discounts & Fun

More everyday savings.

☐ Free Tax Help (AARP Tax-Aide / TCE)

Free tax prep focused on seniors. See the Free Tax Filing guide.

→ www.aarp.org/money/taxes/aarp_taxaide

☐ Senior & Park Discounts

Many businesses, transit, and the lifetime National Parks Senior Pass offer big senior discounts.

⚠ WATCH OUT FOR

You usually have to ask for senior discounts — they're rarely automatic. And avoid "senior discount" sites that charge a membership; legitimate discounts are free just for being your age.

★ A TIP THAT HELPS

Always ask "Is there a senior discount?" — transit, pharmacies, stores, and entertainment often have them. Combined with benefit programs, the savings add up fast on a fixed income.
